Represents County at State T. B. Meet

Mr. Harry A. Hall, treasurer of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association, and Mrs. Hall left Sunday to attend the two-day meeting of the State Tuberculosis Association at Quincy, Illinois. Mr. Hall will represent Lake County at the business meeting Monday when important changes in the by-laws will be discussed.

Miss Mary Kendall, Executive Secretary of the local association, will also attend this meeting.

On Tuesday evening silver loving cups will be awarded to the counties having the largest gross seal sale, the highest per capita sale, and the highest per capita increase.

Mrs. Childs to Fill Vacancy.
Mrs. George W. Childs of Highland Park has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Margaret Maryweather of that city.

Other members of the board from that district are: Ms. F. B. Hitchcock and Mrs. Rodney B. Swift.

How the Illinois Tuberculosis Association aided in reducing deaths from tuberculosis and prevented the development of new cases during 1934 is told in the annual report of the organization's activities, prepared by W. P. Shahan, executive secretary. Copies of the report were received in Waukegan this week. There were 38 fewer deaths than in 1933.

Outstanding among the Illinois Tuberculosis Association's achievements during the year was its work for the passage of the Sanatorium Tax Law in nine counties, the report shows. Voters in Alexander, Boone, Clay, Kane, McDonough, McLean, Rock Island, Sangamon and Stark counties, by large majorities, levied upon themselves additional taxes for the care of their tuberculous residents. Approximately $400,000 a year for the next ten years may be levied for this purpose in these nine counties.

Shahan points out in the report that passage of the Sanatorium Tax Law is the key to the solution of the tuberculosis problem in Illinois.

PILLIFANT HEADS COUNTY BOARD

Harold F. Pillifant, supervisor from Waukegan township was elected as chairman of the Lake County board of supervisors yesterday afternoon by a unanimous vote.

The names of C. J. Herschberger of Prairie View and John D. Thomas of Zion were not brought before the board on agreement after it was determined that neither could be elected, although friends of both had campaigned determinedly.

SEEK RETENTION OF DR. LIEBER AS COUNTY PHYSICIAN

That Dr. Charles Lieber will be urged to reconsider his resignation as County Physician which becomes effective on July 1 is becoming more and more apparent every day.

Dr. Lieber's resignation was presented to the Lake County board of supervisors early in March. At that time he announced that he plans to give up the post because of the strenuous duties that often call for his services 24 hours of the day. He asserted that after the expiration of his term on July 1 he plans to take a long rest and then enter private practice again. The statement was made also that Dr. Kark Beck, Dr. Lieber's associate, and former county physician himself, would not be a candidate for the post.

Disinclination to have Dr. Lieber give up the post which he has filled so efficiently for the last twelve years, is being expressed by more and more members of the county board and it is apparent that an insistent request will be made that he reconsider his resignation and accept another appointment. It is indicated also that an effort will be made to make his duties less arduous.

The office of county physician is coveted by many physicians and it was currently reported, following the announcement of Dr. Lieber's resignation that many would seek the post. Little or no opposition is anticipated if Dr. Lieber can be prevailed upon to consider another term.

May 18 Set For Farm Bureau Ball Games

Big league scouts will be on the lookout for another Dizzy Dean or Schoolboy Rowe among the 400 to 500 Illinois farm boys expected to compete this year in the Illinois Farm Bureau Baseball League, according to Ebb Harple of Grays Lake, new president of the state-wide organization.

Mr. Harple, a member of the board of Illinois Agricultural Association from Lake county has sounded the call to all Illinois County Farm Bureaus to develop a 1935 program of farm sports, including a baseball team.

Twenty-one Farm Bureau teams which played in the League last year will be ready again to play ball. A 50 per cent increase in the number competing is hoped for by Saturday, May 18, when the 1935 season will officially open.

Bond County Farm Bureau is organizing a team and hopes to develop a new division in the territory immediately north and east of St. Louis. Other counties also are talking about organizing teams.

Soft Ball Season Opens Here Friday

Two local teams, Kaulman's All-Stars, and the Channel Lake team, will play the 1935 soft ball season here tomorrow afternoon at 6:30 o'clock at the Antioch grade school grounds. Bill Kaulman is slated to hurl for the town team while the choice of Manager Pat Miller of the Channel Lake crew will be Stanton, Koukol or Sorenson. There has always existed a keen rivalry between these two local teams and any time they meet there is always plenty of excitement.

The Lake team was organized for the season Monday night at a meeting at Sorenson's tavern when Miller was made manager, Kennedy, captain, and Ed Sorenson, secretary. In former years the team has made an imposing record having defeated about all of the better teams in this locality. The team is made up of players from all parts of the county.

Phil Anderson is enjoying a week's vacation from his duties. He expects to visit friends in northern Michigan and Wisconsin.

Three Elected at Grade School.

Thirty persons voting at the grade school returned three to office on the board of education. They are: A. M. Hawkin, former board member elected president for one year term; S. Boyer, Nelson and Joseph Horton elected board members for three year terms. Mr. Nelson served last year as president. The four hold-overs on the seven-member board are Mrs. Roy Pierce, Mrs. G. S. Klass, Mrs. Walter Selter and William J. Anderson.

At the board meeting last night Mr. Anderson was re-elected clerk.

AUTO DEATH RATE GREATER IN LAKE CO. THAN IN COOK

Rural Accidents Have Increased 10%, Says Conference on Hwy. Safety

Lake is one of the thirty-five counties in the state which has a higher death rate than the heavy death rate in Cook county from automobile accidents, according to a statement issued by the Illinois Conference on Highway Safety Legislation, which points out that this fact is one of the reasons why there is so much local interest in the passage of the driver's license and safety responsibility bills, now being considered in the state legislature.

The conference declares that approximately three-fourths of all automobile accidents are caused by the driver. The road, the weather, the condition of the car, and the misdeeds of pedestrians are factors in the accident situation. "But," says J. H. Braun, general counsel for the Chicago Motor Club and for the conference, "for real reduction, the driver must be reached, and except by a driver's license law can the drunken driver, the indifferent driver, the hit-and-run driver and the mentally unbalanced driver be kept off the road?"

The club attorney points out that the only way to compensate for accidents, personal injury and property damage, is by means of a financial responsibility law. He also points out that 17 cents a year for a driver's license fee would save drivers on the average of $10 to $20 a year.

For a ten-year period, while urban accidents have decreased more than 10 per cent, rural accidents have increased in a like proportion. It was shown, however, that in states with driver's license and financial responsibility laws, the decrease in accidents has been manifest. "Whereas," says the bulletin, "the increase in accidents throughout the country last year was approximately 14 1/2 per cent, the increase in driver's license and responsibility states was 10 1/2 per cent; yet, in states where no such laws existed it was 23 1/2 per cent. These figures proved conclusively the results to be obtained by these life-saving measures."

Firemen Answer Two Calls This Week

Two fire calls were received at the local fire station during the week, one Monday when a chimney burned out at the Fred Stahmer home on Lake street, and the second call was from the Clayton Wertz home on Channel Lake road where a gasoline stove exploded. Arthur Wertz threw a blanket over the fire and smothered the flames before the arrival of the firemen.

CITIZENS TICKET VICTORIOUS OVER INDEPENDENTS

Shultis Treasurer by One Vote; Clerk Murrie Is High Man

Mayor George B. Bartlett, ten years president of the Antioch village board of trustees, and nine of his running mates on the Citizens ticket were swept into office here Tuesday by majorities ranging down to one vote, the margin by which Clarence Shultis won the treasurer'ship over Russell Barnstable, the Independent candidate, 223 to 222.

The veteran mayor defeated his younger opponent, Arthur Mapletorpe, by 95 votes, the final count being 274 for Bartlett and 179 for Mapletorpe.

Wholesale scratching of ballots was indicated early in the day when voters were observed to be spending more than the usual time in the voting booths, and this was verified when the count began, as only 67 straight ballots were found, 50 for the Citizens ticket and 17 for the Independents.

A total of 494 persons voted, which Clerk Murrie believes to be a record high for the village. Two years ago Bartlett and B. F. Naber drew 466 votes. In Tuesday's election 26 voters failed to express a choice for mayor. A total of 453 marked for village president, and about 16 spoiled ballots were thrown out.

Three new members appear on the board of trustees as a result of Tuesday balloting. They are: Robert J. Wilton, high vote getter among the candidates for trustee, with 326 votes; Laurel D. Powles with 277; and Walter L. Scott, the lone victorious candidate on the Independent ticket, with 219 votes. Re-elected as trustees were: E. O. Hawkins, 221; James Stearns, Antioch fire chief, 246; and J. B. Drom, 225.

Murrie High Vote Getter.
Roy L. Murrie, village clerk and unopposed for re-election, received 378 votes, the largest of the election.

The closest race was that between Clarence B. Shultis and Russell Barnstable for village treasurer. Shultis received 223 votes and Barnstable 222.

Mrs. Esther Galbraith and Dr. L. J. Zimmerman, unopposed candidates for library directors, were elected by 306 and 312 votes respectively.

THINGS ONE REMEMBERS

Chickens come home to roost! From four widely separated Southern communities vigorous protests have arisen against the loss of local tax revenues resulting from government acquisition of property and its consequent removal from local tax rolls.

When people clamor for "free political pork" (government ownership of an industry or land in their community), they forget that the only way the pork barrel can be filled in order to make them the gift, is through money drawn from their own hard-earned savings by taxation. The politicians "give" them nothing except what they first take away.

A Georgia mayor wants something done about loss of municipal revenue occasioned by two large tax-free PWA housing projects which supplant former tax-paying property.

One North Carolina county wants the government to compensate it for taxes lost on account of huge acreage withdrawn for a tax-exempt park project.

Another county in the same state has now lost taxes from 12,000 acres of land taken by the government for waterfowl refuge and wants relief along with the birds.

Six Tennessee counties find a loss in their tax rolls of from 5 to 35 per cent of total assessed valuation, as the result of TVA purchases.

One Senator declares that public ownership of railroads, which some are advocating, and public ownership of utilities would deprive his state of nine million dollars a year tax revenues. "Where in God's world are they going to make it up?" he asks.

The entire program of government competing in business with its own citizens would be laughable if it were not so serious. The politicians get votes by promising the people something for nothing, and the people try to get something which they think somebody else will pay for. In reality the people pay for the whole works, including the government owned tax-exempt enterprises which destroy their own highly taxed businesses and ultimately government income itself. If this isn't an endless circle of destruction, what is?

Unless the people wake up to the menace of government ownership of property and industry, they will find more of their savings taken to finance political "hen houses," than they will have left to build homes for themselves.

EMPTYING THE 'MOTORISTS' POCKETBOOK

The vast army of politicians which is always on the hunt for a new way of raising money to spend for this purpose or that, is again turning its attention to the gasoline tax.

Agitation is underway in California and several other states to boost existing gas tax rates. And the chances are that still more states will be invited to get in the parade. When the tax gatherers see their fellows across a border preparing to cut a nice juicy melon at public expense, they want a slice too.

It might be well to keep in mind the fact that the automobile owner already bears the largest burden of class, special taxation of any group in the country. In California alone he must pay out $80,000,000 a year—and if the gas tax is raised he will pay $12,000,000 more per year in the future. This would be bad enough if the money were used exclusively for road building and other purposes directly benefitting the motorist. But a rising percentage of tax revenues from gas and other automobile levies is going into general state funds, to be used for any and all governmental functions—functions that should be paid for by taxes contributed by all the people, and not by a single class.

The gas tax shouldn't be increased—instead, it should be reduced. And the public should let the politicians know how it feels about it.

3,500,000 JOBS

The tamul and the shouting have died at last, so far as the work relief bill is concerned. After more than two months of acrimonious debate it has passed both houses. Save for relatively minor provisions, it passed in the form the President asked.

The President will have the say in spending the money, with the exception of highway funds which are to be specifically allocated. He will also have the authority to fix wage scales. According to the relief administration, it will be possible to create 3,700,000 jobs with the money.

One of our contemporaries says: "One reason why I like a small town is that when you get a job digging a ditch the local papers say that you have accepted a position."

True enough. But when you are in a city you don't have to worry about getting a job at all. You just stand in line and get a check from the government.

Dust storms, they say, have come upon us because during the war we turned under the sod of thousands of acres that nature intended to be used for grazing lands. But remember we did it to make the world safe for democracy.

Somebody suggests that the reason the federal relief appropriation was fixed at $4,800,000,000 is that the number is so easy to divide. There are 48 states, which makes it a hundred millions to a state.

It is said that thousands of soldiers have gone through a war without knowing what it was really about. But that's nothing to be ashamed of as a lot of the generals and statesmen probably don't know, either.

If Italy and Ethiopia go to war there is plenty of desert in California to enable us to get an authentic motion picture history of it.

The old fashioned sport who called his little blonde fairy a cutie, married her and now thinks she is a "cootie."

THE LAWYER EXPLAINS

By Attorney Bernard J. Juron

$10,000 DAMAGES

One of the many strange provisions of our law comes to notice when a suit is filed for damages by reason of the accidental death of a person. Our Statute provides that in such cases damages may be recovered in a sum not exceeding $10,000, so that, by law, the value of a life is fixed at a price of $10,000, yet there have been many lawsuits filed in our various courts for damages sustained by persons by reason of loss of a member of the body, or the loss of sight or hearing, where damages are claimed in the sum of $50,000, and there are numerous cases of record where persons have recovered in the neighborhood of $50,000. That is due to the fact that the law makes no limitations as to the amount of damages to be recovered in these types of cases except as noted above in the case of death.

It should be noted that no matter whether it be for $10,000 in case of death, or $50,000 in case of injuries, for what amount a suit is filed those amounts have absolutely no significance with reference to the amount of recovery. It simply means that the person filing a suit is limited, and could not recover an amount greater than that specified in his claim. It is a common occurrence to see a suit for $10,000 come up to trial, and the jury finds that the actual damages amount to perhaps $300.00. This is due to the fact that the jury has a right, in determining the merits of a case, to take into consideration all of the facts in order to find the actual or true damage.

It has happened in many cases that a jury would sometimes award the small amount of damages as a matter of sympathy instead of as a matter of right. Although, in every case, the Court instructs the jury that sympathy shall play no part in the administration of justice, yet the human element enters into many of the lawsuits and some peculiar verdicts are the result.

In the next issue we shall take up the subject of Deceits.

Meaning of "Junket"
The word junket as often applied to congress was originally applied to a banquet, or a picnic or excursion with feasting but it has come to mean a trip at public expense by government officials to some distant post, territory or public works for the purpose, they claim, of investigating conduct or for inspection. Congressmen, especially, have been noted in the past for their junkets to distant regions flying the American flag—rather than the people's.

First to Play Juliet

In the first Shakespearean productions it was the custom to use boy actors for feminine roles. The part of Romeo was played by Burbage and an unidentified boy played Juliet in the earliest performances. Between the time of Burbage's death and the Restoration there are no records of Romeo and Juliet on the stage. From 1642 to 1660 parliament prohibited public stage plays. After the lifting of this prohibition, Sir William D'Avenant revived from the King exclusive stage rights for the play. His original Juliet was Mary Sammonson, afterward Mrs. Thomas Betterton, who is apparently the first woman ever to have played the part of Juliet.

The Resumption Act

In 1874 Senator John Sherman of Mansfield, Ohio, introduced the famous Resumption Act, which passed the senate the same year and the house early in 1875. In 1877 he was appointed secretary of the treasury by President Hayes, and in that position had the unique experience of carrying out the crowning triumph of his fiscal policy which as senator he had originated and advocated. Through his supervision the resumption of specie payments by the government was accomplished, despite the dismal forebodings of several practical, acknowledged financiers.

At Easter Time

I'll be loving you at Easter time,
The gladdest day of Spring
When Nature from their quiet sleep
Has awakened everything.

The birds are singing gaily where
The hedgerow's tipped with green,
And where the Winter's snow has lain
The flowering buds are seen.

The violet from its leafy bed
Reflects the heaven's own blue,
While all the lovely things of earth
Seem telling me of you.

Thru every day I'll be loving you,
Tho the winds blow East or West,
But at Easter time of all the days,
I'll be loving you the best.

Idealism

The power of idealism is a curious power of seeing what we like or admire and then trying to imitate it; seeing things that are beautiful and trying to make other things like them; this power of idealism being a great guiding force in the upward movement of humanity.—Kansas City Times.

Spinach Keeps Hair On

He who eats much spinach does well by his hair. Vitamins C, which is contained in spinach in great quantities, plays a very important part in the organism of the body. Shortage of this valuable vitamin results in impaired growth and premature old age, even manifested by the shedding of hair.—Your Hair's Work.

Tin-Producing Countries

OLD REVENUE LAWS BLAMED FOR PLIGHT OF LAKE CO. SCHOOLS

Districts Suffer Remarkable Inequalities in Revenue

Springfield, Ill., April 10—School districts in Lake county, as in all other Illinois counties, suffer remarkable inequalities in ability to support schools. One school may have a surplus of income. The next starves. Antiquated school and revenue laws are to blame. They breed unfairness to schools, to teachers and to pupils.

When one district rolls in wealth and a neighbor is mired in poverty something is wrong. One good sign is that the public, finally becoming informed, is beginning to be aroused. More than 90 per cent of a school's support must come from local property taxes.

Under the present law a school board may levy, without referendum, a tax rate of one dollar to the $100 of assessed valuation on all property in the district for educational purposes. Let's see what that means—Spring Valley school district, Sane county, has 43 children. Assessed valuation, all property in the district, is $12,130. That district, taxing itself to the limit, can raise only $2.82 per child per year.

Dickens school district, Kane county, has one child; assessed valuation, all property, $177,415. That district, taxing itself to the limit, can raise $177.41 to educate its child.

In the York House district in Lake county there are 5 children and the assessed valuation of all property is $112,805. That district, taxing itself to the limit, can raise $227.61 per child per year.

In the Hickory district in Lake county there are 31 children and the assessed valuation of all property is $149,645. That district under the same law can raise only $48.27 per child per year.

Similar comparisons with similar inequalities, can be found in practically every county in the state. Now change the picture—Addison district, DuPage county, 23 children, has property assessed at $1,221,045. That's $530.88 per child per year. Or turn to Bond county where the Marl district, four children, has an assessed valuation of $328,252. That's $570.63 per child per year.

Under the law a district through which a railroad runs receives taxes for all the railroad property in that district. Districts without railroad property get no it. It taxes, hence the railroads pay as high as 50 and 60 per cent of school support in some districts and none at all in others. Yet the railroad may get more revenue from the district to which it pays, nothing than from the one it helps to support.

The state gives special aid to the poorer districts. This special aid of $10,500,000 which it is presumed comes out of the state school fund the state contributes to school support. But the joker in the deck is that the state is delinquent nearly $15,000,000 on its payments to that fund. It is short $7,000,000 in its payments for this biennium alone and even more for previous bienniums.

Hundreds of school districts, in desperate condition, would face no trouble at all if the state would only pay them—money promised under the law and in good faith. This situation would be corrected quickly, no doubt. If all districts were in trouble. What seems to be halting the cure is this: Too many residents of the impoverished districts, with starved schools and unpaid teachers, admit they are licked. Fight is gone out of them. In their dismay they silently admit helplessness. They're taking it lying down.

On the other hand most residents of wealthy districts are undisturbed and uninterested. "All's well with the world," they say, and let it go at that. Their houses are not on fire. Other states have modernized their school laws. Many other states have no similar problems. Numerous states, using a pinch of wisdom, have freed out their inequalities. It isn't difficult. California, New York, Delaware, New Jersey, Indiana and Kentucky are all bright examples. They have proved what can be done if the school laws are brought up to date. Victims of Illinois' antiquated school laws are saying to the legislature, "Do something about it."

Weird Animals on Islands
On the Galapagos islands, there still exist extraordinary animal forms that attracted Darwin's attention, such as birds that do not fly, turtles weighing hundreds of pounds that never go near the water, sea hares that rear their heads in the air and walk on their hind legs, wild goats who enjoy drinking salt water, and a host of other equally weird animals.

Chinese Jews
The only known Chinese Jews have lived in Kailung, China, since 1163 A. D. For several hundred years, they kept their colony apart from the Chinese. Today, however, after numerous generations of intermarriage, the Jews who are left have almost entirely lost their original racial characteristics.—Collier's Weekly.

Farm Product Exempt From Freight Increase

Farm products are excluded from the general increase in freight rates which goes into effect April 18 to continue until June 30, 1935, the Illinois Agricultural Association declared in a statement received today. The I. A. A., American Farm Bureau Federation and other farm groups which protested the increase on farm products had their objections sustained. G. W. Baxter, traffic manager for the Association said.

Rates will be increased on most carload traffic from one to three cents per hundred pounds and on less than carload traffic not to exceed 10 per cent of the line haul charge. The increases are in the form of surcharges added to each rate.

In reaching its decision, excluding farm products from the increase, the Interstate Commerce Commission pointed out that the general level of farm prices undoubtedly will decline in 1935 with a normal crop. The out-

8 BIG CREAMERIES PLANNED BY FARMERS

Expect to Shorten Route to Market and Aid Producer

To bring to the cream producer a larger share of the consumer's butter dollar is the object of the chain of eight cooperative producers' creameries now operating or being organized in Illinois, the Illinois Agricultural Association declared in a statement made public today.

Six district cooperative creameries are making butter at the rate of more than 5,000,000 pounds annually, Frank Gougler and J. B. Counsell of the I. A. A. marketing staff pointed out, and two additional creameries, one at Galeburg and the other in the territory centering about Mt. Sterling are now being organized. The creameries now operating are located at Moline, Bloomington, Peoria, Champaign, Olney and Carbondale, the latter opening for business only last week.

Mr. Gougler believes that farmer-owned creameries can make at least two outstanding contributions for the benefit of producers in marketing their cream. First, he asserts that farmers can reduce the cost of getting their cream to the processing plant by concentrating volume within a community and transporting the cream from the farm direct to the creamery by truck.

Secondly, by shortening the route to market and speeding delivery, tests have shown that cream will arrive in much better condition and produce a superior quality butter which will command a better price on the market.

look is for increased production of crops this year which will give the railroads a heavier tonnage. The Commission took the view that nothing should be done to slow up farm recovery since agricultural prosperity is fundamental to the welfare of the country.

Naval Nations
Only the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan are the real "naval nations." The next forty countries have only insignificant fleets, while the next twenty have none at all, this latter class including Belgium which, for economic reasons, abolished its navy in 1922.—Collier's Weekly.

When Bibles Were Changed
Between 1502 and 1527 Bible reading was prohibited in England. As early as the fourteenth century, we are told, Bibles were chained to keep them from being stolen.

Blonde Always Wins
That men have always preferred blond hair is supported by a number of facts in history. One of the best indications is that in the heyday of wigs it was the blond ones that were at a premium. The dark wigs were cheaper and made of horse or goat hair while the blond wigs were made of human hair.

Thank You

To the Voters of the Village of Antioch, we wish to express our appreciation for your support in Tuesday's Election.

We feel that it was not so much a contest of individuals for office, but rather for the approval or disapproval of past administration of Village affairs.

We wish to express our gratitude to our sponsors for the clean, quiet manner in which our campaign was conducted by them. Remembering in the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said: "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the Earth."

Peas, With Trimmings

There is no better canned vegetable than a can of peas served just as it comes from the can, but peas with trimmings are also delicious, and serve to vary your menus. Peas and cheese, for instance.

Peas au Gratin—Heat the contents of a No. 2 can of peas in their own liquor until it is almost entirely absorbed, then spread the peas out in a buttered glass pie plate or shallow baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, and pour over six tablespoons cream. Cover with one-half cup grated cheese, and dust with paprika. Place under broiler flame or in a very hot oven until the cheese melts and browns and the cream bubbles. Serve from the dish in which baked. Serves five to six.

A New Pea Salad
Pea and Beet Sandwich Salad: Dissolve one package lemon gelatin in one cup boiling water, and add one-half teaspoon salt. Add two tablespoons of this mixture to two packages of cream cheese, mashed. Now divide the remaining gelatin into two equal parts. To part one add one tablespoon vinegar, two teaspoons horseradish, seven tablespoons liquor from canned beets and one-half cup of the beets. To part two add one tablespoon vinegar, one tablespoon India relish, seven tablespoons canned pea liquor and one-half cup of the peas. Pour part one into six individual wet molds, and let harden in refrigerator. Then add the cheese mixture, spreading it evenly over the gelatin, and let chill again. Then pour in part two, and finish hardening. Serve unmolded on lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise. Serves six.

FRUIT MEAL SALAD

(serves 1)
On lettuce-covered salad plate, center a mound of cottage cheese (1½ tablespoons). Around this at equal distances arrange 3 piles of orange slices. In spaces between orange, place 3 or 4 stoned dates (first space); 1 dozen spoonful seedless raisins (second space); 5 walnut meat halves (third space). Serve with French dressing.

With buttered roll and a beverage this makes a well-balanced luncheon.

QUICK ORANGE JAM

(makes 2 glasses)
2 cups orange pulp and juice
1 lemon, pulp and juice
1½ cups sugar
Boil quickly about ten minutes or until syrupy and clear. Very good served warm on hot biscuits.

MINCEMEAT MOLASSES COOKIES

½ ounce package dry, condensed mincemeat
½ cup water
½ cup butter
½ cup brown sugar
1 egg
½ cup molasses
3 cups flour
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoonful ginger
Roll dry, condensed mincemeat and ½ cup water for three minutes or until mixture is almost dry. Cream butter and sugar together. Add beaten egg and molasses. Mix and sift flour, soda, salt and ginger. Add dry ingredients to butter mixture gradually. Fold in cooled mincemeat. Drop by spoonfuls on buttered cookie sheet and bake ten minutes, or until brown, in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.). This recipe makes 4½ dozen cookies.

Cookery Hint

Marinate the fish for salad for fifteen minutes before using. Then drain from the French dressing in which it was marinated and mix with other ingredients.

Burnt Sugar Cake

½ cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 egg yolks beaten
2 tablespoons caramel syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup milk
2½ cups cake flour
2 tablespoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 egg whites beaten stiff
Cream the shortening and sugar together thoroughly. Add the beaten egg yolks and the vanilla and mix until smooth. Add the caramel syrup, which has been made by caramelizing ½ cup of sugar until it is melting, then gradually adding ¼ cup boiling water and allowing it to simmer until smooth. Sift the flour with the baking powder and salt and add alternately with the milk. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites and pour into two greased pans eight inches square, the bottoms of which have been lined with waxed paper. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Cool and put together, and ice with a boiled icing to which 1½ tablespoons of caramel syrup have been added.

What Vocation Shall My Boy Choose?

By J. D. Purdy

Director, School of Electrical Engineering, International Correspondence Schools.

We live in a changing world. Opportunities for success in the future will differ from those in the past. A young man's wise choice of his life work may do much to determine success or failure. How shall he choose?

The Transmission Engineer

SINCE Thomas A. Edison opened the first commercial electric light and power plant in New York City in 1882 the electrical industry has moved forward with enormous strides. Yet the industry is still in its infancy and the limits of its progress are not likely to be reached during the lifetime of anyone living today.

With work being pushed on huge power projects that dwarf their predecessors, and with others equally huge being planned, one of the most promising fields for the young man eager to carve out a career lies in the transmission of electric power from its source to where it is to be used. Many of the great projects, planned or under construction, are in sparsely settled areas. Their maximum usefulness depends on the continued development of methods of transmitting their power to cities and towns perhaps hundreds of miles away.

The half-mile transmission lines of the 1880's have grown to a length of 250 to 300 miles. Can they be increased to still greater lengths? Can they carry their load more economically and with less loss on the way? These are some of the questions the transmission engineer must answer, and those who prove able to answer them are certain of outstanding success in their careers.

To qualify as a transmission engineer requires technical training. Many men have obtained their training at a university, but others have proved that what can be learned in laboratory and classroom can also be learned by combining practical experience with spare time study. Any number of successful transmission engineers can look back to a beginner's job in a power plant, supplemented by solitary study when the day's work was done.

Sprinkle the top with coarsely chopped salted almonds.

Maraschino Nut Cake

½ cup of shortening
1½ cups of sugar
2 cups plus 5 tablespoons cake flour
½ cup broken nut meats
16 maraschino cherries cut coarsely
4 egg whites
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup liquid, consisting of ¼ or a bit more of the juice from the cherries and made up of ¼ cup of milk. Cream the shortening, add the sugar gradually and cream together. Sift the flour before measuring. Use 2 tablespoons sifted flour to mix with the egg whites and nuts. Mix and sift the remaining part of the flour with the baking powder and salt. Add to the creamed mixture alternately with the liquid. Blend in the nuts and cherries. Lastly fold in the egg whites, which have been beaten until stiff but not dry. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees 30 minutes). This cake can be baked in loaf, layer, or cup cakes.

Luscious Fruit Pudding

How welcome a fruit pudding, when the first course has been substantial! With quick-cooking tapioca as an ingredient, you have an ideal combination with fruit—the tapioca making an inviting, smooth contrast to the grateful fresh-tasting fruit. At the same time, tapioca adds its generous quota to nourishment to the dessert.

Baked Apple Tapioca

3 cups water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
3 tart apples, pared and sliced
½ cup quick-cooking tapioca
1 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon mace
3 tablespoons melted butter
Combine water and lemon juice and pour over apples in greased shallow baking dish. Cover and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15 minutes or until apples are partially cooked. Mix together quick-cooking tapioca, ¾ cup sugar, salt and mace. Sprinkle over apples, mixing thoroughly. Add butter. Continue baking 10 minutes. Then stir well; sprinkle remaining sugar over apple mixture, and bake 5 minutes longer. Serve hot or cold with cream. Serves six.

Deep-dish Cherry Pudding

½ cup quick-cooking tapioca
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 cups canned sour cherries, drained
3 cups water or cherry juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons melted butter
Combine ingredients in greased baking dish. Mix thoroughly. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 30 minutes, stirring well when necessary. Moving from oven. Serves eight.

Use Cereals In Preparing Tasty "Economy" Dishes

By Barbara Brooks

WE are all so familiar with a breakfast dish as rapidly establishing an important place for themselves in American cookery as ingredients of the main dish or the dessert, for lunch or for dinner. So true is this that the knowing housewife could scarcely get along without several varieties on her pantry shelves, to be drawn upon in preparing the meat dish, a baked dessert or perhaps the vegetable piece de resistance.

One of the chief advantages of the ready-to-eat cereals is that they have proved themselves invaluable in combination with inexpensive cuts of meat, contributing to the finished dish an added and distinctive zest. The following "economy" dishes are easy to prepare and your whole family will find them delicious.

Planked Round Steak

1 tablespoon fat
1 tablespoon parsley
chopped onion
1 egg (beaten)
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups corn flake crumbs
1 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 cup onion
Sauté onion in fat. Beat eggs and add remainder of ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Form a flat loaf on a planked shallow baking pan or platter. Place strips of bacon across top. Surround loaf with boiled potatoes. Bake in a hot oven (425° F.) about 40 minutes. Garnish platter with whole buttered onions and carrots in spinach nests. Yield: 10 servings.

Mock Pate de Foie Gras

1 pound liver (Pork or beef)
1 pound salt pork
1 medium onion
8 sprigs parsley
2 eggs (beaten)
1 cup corn flake crumbs (fine)
½ cup milk
1½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon salt

Boil liver. Put liver, salt pork, onion and parsley through food chopper twice. Add the eggs, corn flake crumbs, milk and seasonings. Turn into greased pudding dish. Cover or tie waxed paper over top. Steam for about three hours. Serve hot or cold. Yield: 8 servings.

Corn Flake Strudel

Line a buttered pudding dish with corn flakes. Cover with a layer of very thinly sliced apples, sprinkle with sugar, a little cinnamon and dot with pieces of butter. Fill to top with alternate layers, covering with a layer of corn flakes. Cover dish closely. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) until apples are soft. Serve with hard sauce, lemon sauce or cream.

Beauty Hints

By Jane Heath

IF you were not gifted by Nature with curly lashes and a ravishing, starry-eyed look, don't despair. There's a clever eyelash curler that will do the trick for you. Curved to fit the eye, it trains the lashes upward with a gentle squeeze on the handles. Hold a few seconds—and presto! Another secret of the movie star's dressing-table is yours.

Blue eye-shadow is the most popular color of the half dozen shades offered this season.

When shaping eyebrows with a tweezer, never pull hairs out "against the grain." Always pluck each hair gently in the same direction in which it is growing.

The Penny Post

The Penny Post was an institution transplanted from London by Benjamin Franklin soon after he was appointed one of the two deputy postmasters for the Colonies in 1753, and, like its London counterpart, had grown up in the post office but, strictly speaking, was not a government function. The main difference between the two was that in London the profits from the local post were assigned to a court favorite, while in America they were the perquisites of the individual postmasters or the carriers whom the latter might appoint.

Saccharine Coal Tar Product

Saccharine is the name of an artificial phenolic acid and is called scientifically orthobenzenedisulfinic acid. It was discovered by Ira Remsen and T. Fahlberg in 1879 in the course of an investigation carried out at Johns Hopkins University. It is many times sweeter than sugar. About one-tenth of a gram is sufficient for a cupful of tea.

LESS THAN 30 BILLS OF 1,000 INTRODUCED ENACTED BY ASSEMBLY

Review of Legislation Pending at Springfield Shows Little Action

While more than 1,000 bills have been introduced, less than 30 have been enacted into law by the present session of the General Assembly, the Illinois Agricultural Association reports in its weekly legislative review. Measures concerning unemployment relief and school relief, leading issues before the Assembly, are being held up pending the passage of the Federal Work Relief Bill in the former case, and the report of the State Education Commission in the latter case, the I. A. A. asserts.

The House Committee which went to Washington to interview federal relief authorities reported back that Illinois would be required to raise the sum of $3,000,000 per month for relief purposes. Numerous bills have been introduced to provide these funds, but those most likely to be pushed were introduced by Sen. Williams and Rep. F. W. Lewis, both by request, which increase the gasoline tax from 3c to 4c to July 1, 1937, and the retailers' occupation or sales tax from 2c to 3c for the same period. The measures also greatly increase the number of trades and occupations subject to the tax of three per cent of gross receipts.

Whether relief shall be handed out in the form of cash or work is another question. The Illinois Agricultural Association is one of several groups insisting that able-bodied persons on relief shall be required to work upon public projects to earn their budgets. Some persons on the other hand, insist that relief be put upon a cash basis with no work requirement.

Down in Pulaski county last week the I. A. A. is informed, farmers were unable to secure help although many persons there available for employment refused to work preferring to accept relief. The report states that county relief authorities had to discontinue relief until farmers there secured the necessary help.

AN EASTER BUNNY LUNCHEON

WE are in a position to deny officially the rumor that all the Easter rabbits will be drawn out of hats by the Administration in Washington, D. C. It might be well, if it were true, because some of the rabbits they have produced from hats in Washington have been very well worth while, but the Easter rabbits will come this year from wherever Easter rabbits usually come from. It was only an April first rumor, after all.

There is no truth either in the rumor that the Administration is prepared to supply alphabet soup for Easter Monday luncheons. They can use all the alphabet available right in Washington, and they are hoping to keep out of the soup entirely. But there will be plenty of humors and eggs for Easter celebrations, whether Washington comes through with them or not, and, as this is a season of special rejoicing, we should make our Easter luncheons as gay as possible.

Have Your Gussie All Ears

One way to make your guests all ears in anticipation and also at your Easter luncheon is to supply these furry addenda to their physiognomies yourself. Just make a pair of ears out of fairly stiff paper for them to draw on over their own, and fasten these artificial ears together with an elastic to reach around the back of the head so that they will stay in place. If you want to be more elaborate, you can cover the ears with fur, but they're harder to keep in place that way, and just plain paper ones of whatever color you choose will create a startling effect. Fringed crepe paper, if stiff enough, might serve for fur.

We don't know exactly what rabbits talk about, and the only data we know of on a rabbit's conversation is that of the mad March hare in Alice in Wonderland. So let's let the conversation remain spontaneous and concentrate on the details of the lunch. You'll want Easter flowers on the table, of course, and lots of bunny favors and decorations. And here's what we would suggest for a bang-up meal:

Orange Flower Appetizer

Broiled Fillets of Beef Medallion (Rounds of Toast, Broiled Pineapple, Diced Carrots and Pepper). Duchess Potatoes. Buttered Lima Beans. Hot Finger Rolls. Apricot Sherbet on Angel Food Cake. Coffee.

Hare Are Tested Recipes

Orange Flower Appetizer: Cut skin from large seedless oranges, and cut out the sections without a particle of white fibre. Drain a can of green gage plums, remove stones and stuff centers with cream cheese. Have everything very cold. Arrange orange sections on crystal plates in flower shape and place a stuffed plum in the center.

Broiled Fillets of Beef Medallion: Broil six fillets of beef. Toast six rounds of bread and toast six slices Hawaiian pineapple in butter. Place a round of toast on each serving plate, put a slice of pineapple on it and top with a fillet of beef. Dress with plenty of melted sweet butter. Now make a ring or border around the medallion with.

Diced Carrots and Pepper: Drain a No. 2 can of diced carrots, and cut two green peppers and one pimiento in small squares. Sauté carrots and pepper in four tablespoons butter until a golden brown. Add pimiento and cook a moment longer. Add two tablespoons chopped parsley and season with salt and pepper.

Apricot Sherbet: Drain a No. 2 can apricots, and to the apricot syrup add one tablespoon corn syrup and twelve marshmallows, and steam in a double boiler until the marshmallows are dissolved. Cool, add the apricots pressed through a sieve and one tablespoon lemon juice. Pour into refrigerator tray, and stir occasionally until it begins to freeze. Then fold in two egg whites, beaten stiff with two tablespoons sugar, and continue freezing, stirring now and then to prevent formation of crystals. Serve on a piece of angel cake. (Mixture may be tinted a deeper yellow. It desired for your color scheme.)

This lunch serves six, and if it doesn't make half a dozen people talk like March hares, it ought at least to satisfy them and then make a noise like a rabbit.

STATE INCREASES REVENUE WHILE SCHOOLS SUFFER

Illinois in Default to School Fund Nearly Fifteen Millions

Springfield, Ill., April 18—Stark tragedies stand out in grim relief against a background of plenty when comparison is made of the financial ability of various Illinois counties to support their schools, according to information received from the State Teachers' Association. Here we find riches, there poverty; here is feast, there famine. Let's see where Lake county stands in this picture.

Records show that Lake county, taxing for school purposes all of its property to the legal limit without referendum, or $1 to the $100 valuation, has the ability to raise $85.07 per child per year on a basis of its 11,243 children in average daily attendance in elementary schools.

Under this same standard Lake county can raise to support each elementary class room in its schools an average of $1,905.41 per year. These figures, of course, take into consideration 100 per cent tax collections.

Cites inequalities.

Standing alone, the figures mean little to the average citizen. But by using other counties as a measure we can establish some sort of yardstick. The wide range is indicated by the following:

Four high counties—Stark, $104.15 per year per child; Lee, $101.53; Henderson, $100.22; Logan, $98.75.

Four low counties—Pulaski, $18.90 per year per child; Saline, $18.98; Franklin, $18.40; Williamson, $18.31.

The state of Illinois has increased its revenues more than $100,000,000 in the last five years. School expenditures have been cut about one-third. The state is in default to the school fund nearly $15,000,000. Of this $7,000,000 is for the present biennium, and the deficiency is caused by omitting a monthly diversion to the state school fund from the sales tax.

Purple in Snail Shells

In the days of ancient Rome the purple in the shell of certain snails was used in the making of Tyrian purple, a dye reserved for the nobility. The snail used this ink to create a smoke screen about itself in time of danger. Other species of snails are known to bear poison glands which enable them to eject a stream of poison several inches. The highly ornamental shells of several species are used as umbrella handles.

AMUSEMENTS

Now Will Rogers Plays Hog Siren

Two hundred grunting, galloping pigs stamped in Will Rogers' latest picture, "Life Begins at 40," which will be featured starting next Monday at the Genesee Theatre.

During the production of this Fox Film picture, which shows America's favorite humorist in a comedy of errors at a small-town editor, the pigs seemed to enjoy the experience of acting. They trotted about and refused to be recaptured, to the intense disgust of the property man.

Will Rogers, in one scene of his picture, described as a search after the "fountain of youth," creates pandemonium in a hog show with his hog calls. To create veracity, Director George Marshall engaged Hank Bell as instructor.

If there is no Devil many things are unexplainable.
